Executive MBA & Level 7 Diploma in Business Management

An innovative curriculum. A world-class education. The key to unlock opportunity

Programme me Overview

RIGHT HERE. RIGHT NOW.

The business world is more complex and the competitive challenges greater than ever before. To succeed in today's global marketplace, you need more diverse skills, broader insights and the confidence that comes from knowing you are truly prepared to assume a critical leadership role. The MBA programme me at Cardiff School of Business can help you create the career possibilities you want. It's a programme me designed to help prepare you to capitalize on the opportunities—and maximize your potential—in the next few years and for the rest of your professional life.

AN ADVANCED CURRICULUM

Rigorous and relevant coursework is a staple of the Mason MBA. You learn from the same Harvard case studies as your Harvard MBA counterparts. Textbooks, lectures, and class discussions are supplemented with role-playing, simulations, projects, and guest speakers

HIGH-CALIBER PEERS AND DEEP BUSINESS CONNECTIONS

We have developed working partnerships with leading business organizations in the region. From the very first session, you have the opportunity to connect with leaders in the area business community and learn first-hand from them. These experienced professionals serve as valuable educational and networking resources for you—providing you with insights and support during your course of study and beyond, as well as opportunities for internships and full-time employment

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

You benefit from a dedicated career management staff that offers individualized career counseling, employment and networking opportunities, and online resources. Our strong relationship with the business community affords you a variety of opportunities to connect with and gain valuable insights from area business professionals.

CORPORATE BENEFITS

Cardiff's programme me delivers valuable benefits to employers by cultivating leadership talent, increasing capacity for strategy execution and decision-making, and contributing to a learning culture in their organizations.

WORLD-CLASS FACULTY

You learn from the best minds and recognized experts in their respective fields—faculty who are committed to supporting your professional goals. Many have done significant research and published extensively, and serve as consultants to Fortune 500 companies—which means they have the credentials and the perspectives to provide you with the best of both worlds: theoretical learning and practical application.

TOP-TIER TECHNOLOGY AND SERVICES

Cardiff School of Business embraces state-of-the-art technology to ensure access to resources inside and outside the classroom, foster the exchange of ideas, and support the work/life balance.
